Hi Laurel,

Deliberative Process / Ex. 5

Deliberative Process / Ex. 5 If you or another person is going to make more changes, please make them from this version to maintain the correct numbering. Or the person could just let me know what change they want made and I can do it so that the formatting doesn't get changed again.

Ellen

It's the one without "compare" in the title. It's a clean document with no markups.

Is one or the other of the attachments you sent considered to contain all of the suggested changes?

Thanks,

I have made some edits and replied to your comments. I think it would be best if you cleaned up the document and see if you agree with my changes before e-concurrence. If you send me back the document I can put it into concurrence tomorrow morning.

Thank you. I think I'm learning how to put things on e-concurrence, so if you don't have time, please don't worry about doing it.

Laurel is working this morning before her flight.
Laurel, will you have time to review this and get it into e-concurrence this morning?
